

O impacto de revistas e editoras predadoras na investigação científica

Maria Luz Antunes, Carlos Lopes, Tatiana Sanches

Ética na publicação

A ética na publicação académica deve seguir os códigos de conduta nacionais e internacionais

Ética e Integridade Académica

- Agir adequadamente num contexto regulado por expectativas comuns, segundo as regras pré-estabelecidas e correspondendo a um conjunto de normas
- Não prejudicar ou desrespeitar outros, não obter vantagens indevidas, não quebrar a confiança de terceiros

Modelos de publicação de revistas académicas e científicas

AUTOR

Não paga – Acesso Aberto – Via Verde e Via Diamante / ou modelo de acesso aberto / ou acesso aberto com embargo por um período de tempo

Não paga APC – Acesso restrito

Paga APCs – Via Dourada de acesso aberto

LEITOR

Modelo tradicional (subscrição de assinatura ou modelo híbrido em acesso aberto)

Acesso aberto Via Verde e Via Diamante (gratuito para o leitor)

Via Dourada de acesso aberto (gratuito para o leitor; o autor paga APCs)

REVISTAS PREDADORAS exploram o modelo da via dourada em acesso aberto

As revistas predadoras

são entidades que priorizam o interesse próprio à custa de subsídios e caracterizam-se por informação falsa ou enganosa, desvio das melhores práticas editoriais e de publicação, falta de transparência e/ou o uso de práticas agressivas e indiscriminadas de convite à apresentação de trabalhos

Predatory journals: no definition, no defence

Leading scholars and publishers from ten countries have agreed a definition of predatory publishing that can protect scholarship. It took 12 hours of discussion, 18 questions and 3 rounds to reach.

Dear Maria Luz Antunes

Good day. Hope you have a pleasant day.

We are reaching you with a strong desire for the involvement of your eminent work in our upcoming issue Volume 6 Issue 1 for our distinguished journal Clinical Case Studies and Reports 2631-5416.

CCSR is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal that broadcasts knowledge to create an archival literature platform with contributions from eminent authors like you.

The journal is indexed by leading International Indexing agencies like J-gate, Google Scholar, cross ref, root indexing, SIS (Scientific Indexing Services), ISI (International Scientific indexing), DRJI, WorldCat, SciLit, and Genamics.

If you have a manuscript ready, we encourage you to submit it as early as possible to publish in the upcoming issue. Alternatively, I'd appreciate it if you could send me your preferred submission date. I eagerly await your innovation.

Attach your manuscript and share it with us in this email to initiate the review process.

Wishing to have your research/opinions published as a piece of writing will help young researchers learn more.

Best Personal Regards

Questões editoriais das revistas predadoras

- Trabalho desenvolvido por uma pessoa e por um computador
- Títulos de revistas similares ou próximos dos das revistas legítimas
- Uso de títulos consolidados e respeitados: Global, International, Universal, Asian, American, European...
- O âmbito da publicação é pouco claro ou é apresentado de forma vaga
- Grande variedade de temas e alcance multidisciplinar para atrair investigadores de todas as disciplinas
- Alta taxa de aprovação de artigos
- De carácter internacional, mas publica poucos artigos de autores conhecidos ou internacionais
- Uso do ISSN para demonstrar que se trata de uma revista de investigação

Direitos de autor / APC das revistas predadoras

- Exige-se aos autores a cessação de direitos, apesar de defenderem o acesso aberto
- Aprovação garantida da publicação, um ciclo de revisão curto e rápido (entre um dia e uma semana), um processo de publicação rápido e fácil, com pouco ou nenhum controlo de qualidade
- Os APC podem estar ocultos
- Algumas revistas negam-se a retirar os artigos a pedido do autor e cobram uma taxa de remoção

Conselho editorial / peer review das revistas predadoras

- Conselho editorial reduzido ou por anunciar: os nomes dos que o compõem não correspondem a investigadores conhecidos; membros de diferentes países para dar à revista um aspeto internacional
- O editor-in-chief é também o editor-in-chief de muitas outras revistas de temática similar ou do mesmo grupo editorial
- Costumam adicionar nomes de investigadores reais, sem o seu consentimento, aos conselhos editoriais para ganhar credibilidade

Indexação e preservação das revistas predadoras

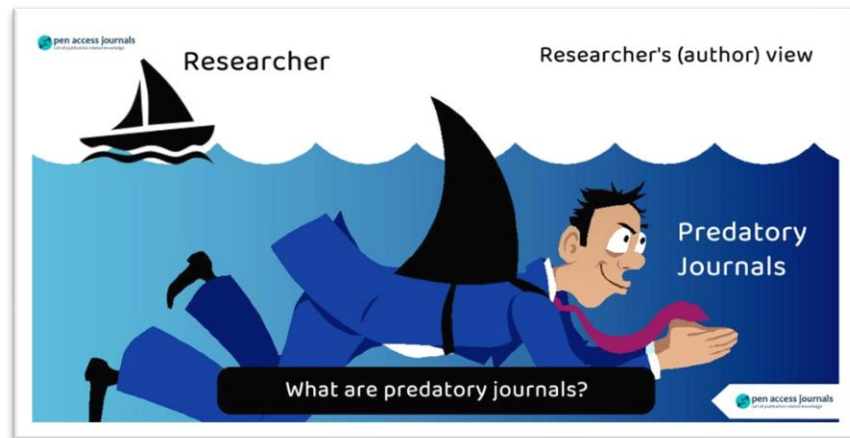

- Indexação de artigos em bases de dados de renome como PubMed, MEDLINE, DOAJ ou Web of Science, imitando el logotipo e aplicando-o no seu website
- Declarações falsas e enganosas sobre um fator de impacto alto e falso, como Scientific Journal Impact Factor, Global Impact Factor, Journal Impact Factor, Universal Impact Factor, Science Impact Factor, International Scientific Indexing, Indian Citation Index, African Quality Center for Journals
- Não apresentam informação sobre a preservação digital dos artigos

Comunicação e difusão das revistas predadoras

- Sinais de advertência no website
- A forma de contacto é um apartado postal
- Revistas geridas a partir de um website altamente sofisticado, com um visual e estética à imagem do das revistas indexadas de renome
- Uso de endereços de email do gmail, yahoo ou qualquer outro fornecedor correio eletrónico gratuito
- Campanhas massivas de spam, intensas, repetitivas e agressivas
- Envio frequente de convites por email para recrutar interessados em proferir palestras ou para integrar conselhos de revisores das revistas
- Colocação fraudulenta do logotipo do COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION ETHICS (COPE) no seu website
- Locais de publicação falsos que afirmam estar localizados em Londres quando estão situados no Sul da Asia ou noutro continente

Editoras predadoras

- Uso de práticas enganosas para atrair os autores
- Exploração do modelo de negócio de acesso aberto em que paga o autor
- Realização de pouco ou nenhum trabalho de revisão por pares ou de edição
- É necessária uma avaliação cuidadosa antes da submissão de um trabalho
- Consulta de listas de comprovação e recursos ou solicitar a opinião de colegas
- Assessoria do bibliotecário

Cordially Welcome You to Be a Speaker at WCFN-2024, Singapore

To Maria Luz Antunes

Links and other functionality have been disabled in this message. To turn on that functionality, move this message to the Inbox. We converted this message into plain text format.

Dear Dr. Maria Luz Antunes,

The 11th Annual World Congress of Food and Nutrition (WCFN-2024) will be held on November 12-14, 2024 in Singapore. On behalf of the organizing committee, we cordially welcome you to deliver a presentation as Speaker regarding your research on Effects of the Ketogenic Diet in the Treatment of Gliomas: A Systematic Review....

Each WCFN has gathered large number of world-renowned experts, professors, and entrepreneurs from many countries. The conference is a great scientific festival with wonderful opportunities to learn about the new research result and achievement of Food and Nutrition, as well as to promote the communication and collaboration among specialists. We look forward you to being a part of this grand event.

Aiming to promote an international exchange of scientific knowledge and experiences, the scientific program will include plenary/keynote lectures and session talks as well as poster presentations under several major themes, mainly focused on: Food Economy, Policy and Laws, Basic Food Science, Advanced Food Technologies, Food Quality and Safety Control, Nutraceuticals and Functional Foods, Diet, Nutrition Research, Human Nutrition through Life Course, Nutrition and Disease Management. Through these dynamic scientific and social events, you will have many opportunities to network and to form potential business collaborations with participants from the globe.

We expect your precious comments or suggestions; also your reference to other speakers will be highly appreciated. We look forward to receiving your replies on the following questions:

1. What is the title of your speech?
2. Do you have any suggestions about our program?

The destination city, Singapore is one of the world's most pocket-sized countries and the smallest country in this region, hence is nicknamed "The Little Red Dot". Despite its small size, Singapore has an significant place in the world with its free trade economy and efficient labor force. As a multi-ethnic country, Singapore is unique in "harmony but difference". In addition to numerous sightseeing and activities, encountering the local culture and customs will give you the ultimate tourism experience.

This is a list of hijacked journals created by a librarian Jeffrey Beall. Any updates to the list will be posted below it.

Sometimes someone will create a counterfeit website that pretends to be the website of a legitimate scholarly journal. The website creators then solicit manuscript submissions for the hijacked version of the journal, pocketing the money. MIAR es una matriz de información con datos de más de 100 fuentes, correspondientes a repertorios de revistas y a bases de datos de indización y resumen internacionales (de citas, multidisciplinarios o especializadas), que se elabora con el propósito de facilitar información útil para la identificación de revistas científicas y el análisis de su difusión.

Una búsqueda en MIAR a partir de un número de ISSN retomaré información sobre la difusión de cualquier revista en las fuentes analizadas por MIAR, aunque se trate de una revista que no esté dada de alta en MIAR.

MIAR acepta la colaboración de editores, autores y lectores, que pueden sugerir nuevas revistas, o establecer contacto para informar de errores, presentar dudas o formular comentarios.

Algumas recomendações aos investigadores (1)

- Título da publicação e possibilidade da sua manipulação artística
- Identificação do editor-in-chief e do conselho editorial
- O editor-in-chief assegura a mesma função noutras revistas do mesmo grupo editorial?
- Âmbito claro e objetivo da publicação
- Política e prática editorial clara e objetiva
- Taxa de aceitação de artigos (verificar as datas de submissão e aprovação dos artigos já publicados)
- Internacionalidade dos autores

Algumas recomendações aos investigadores (2)

- Oferta de descontos ou isenção de pagamento de APC para investigadores júnior/países de baixos rendimentos
- Identificação de instruções e diretrizes detalhadas para os autores
- Fator de impacto legítimo
- Evidência da preservação digital dos conteúdos publicados
- Análise do website: publicidade, erros ortográficos e gramaticais, contactos reais, imagens com pouca definição, construção muito semelhante à de outras revistas, etc.

Resumen

Se analiza la problemática de las revistas y editoriales depredadoras en el campo de la salud, identificando sus características y los conocimientos adquiridos. Se realizó una revisión de la literatura en salud indexada en ProQuest, PubMed, Scopus, SciELO y Web of Science a lo largo de 2020 y 2021 en marzo de 2022. Se constató la creciente preocupación por revistas y editoriales depredadoras en los últimos años, especialmente a partir de 2015 y confirmada a partir de 2017. Las cifras de 2021 y primeros meses de 2022 acompañan esta escalada. Web of Science, Scopus y PubMed son las bases de datos que muestran una clara preocupación por las ciencias de la salud. Como conclusión, la presión por publicar y la dificultad para distinguir la revista legítima de la ilegítima propician un ambiente favorable a la proliferación de publicaciones cuestionables. Los investigadores deben tomar una

Abstract

The problem of predatory journals and publishers in the health field is analyzed, identifying characteristics and the insights acquired. A review of health literature indexed in ProQuest, PubMed, Scopus, SciELO, and Web of Science was conducted in 2020 and 2021. The data survey was confirmed in March 2022. The analysis allowed the characterization of the phenomenon and verify the negative effects on the health sciences, and therefore a set of recommendations was written for the researchers. A growing apprehension with predatory journals and publishers was evidenced over the past few years, especially from 2015 and confirmed since 2017. Figures for 2021 and the first months of 2022 follow this increase. The Web of Science, Scopus, and PubMed are the databases that show a notorious concern with health sciences. The pressure to publish, and the difficulty in discerning legitimate jour-
